

Simplified, Uh-Huh

It's plain to see,
This could be you and me,
And it's all up to you,
Tell me what you want to do,

And it's not just another day,
When you come 'round to say hey,
And you look so fine,
When you give me that smile,
I lose myself for awhile,

And when I see you coming,
You know you get my blood running,
Cause your love,
Cause your love is like a flame,
You make me want,
To play your game,

So won't you come to the show,
So I can watch you dance,
Watch you wiggle and jiggle,
In those tight, light pants,
I can make you happy,
I just know I could,
Give me one chance,
I'll treat you like I should,
Don't stop talking cause you're turning me on,
Got me screaming and a singing,
On this microphone,
And I'm not used,
To being this way,
Sometimes all I can say
