

Simply Red, The Spirit Of Love

Are you the best or the equal of every man on this earth
I introspect I can have anything that I could want
Yet I need for nothing oh nothing

'cos the spirit of life is within you
Breathing with ease through the whole of you
And deeper inside is within you searching until we find a way

To jump out now jumping around now
Cause sooner or later we'll be gone

What will be left is the benefit of all we've learnt before
And what's the test it's the dignity of every man
You will need for nothing oh nothing
You will need for nothing oh nothing
