Sinead O'Connor, I Am Enough For Myself

Oh the days are long 'Til the baby comes God will take all fear If you say this clear I am enough for myself I don't need anything else I am enough for myself I am in your heart I only can have that part I am in your dreams I only can touch these things I am who gives the breath I am your nakedness I am nothing at all And I am singing your soul I am that am I I am that am I I am that I am I am enough for myself
