

Sinergy, Razor Blade Salvation

For what once was a dream you have made reality this evening our passion will end in blood

Release through my blade the sweetest red potion only your veins posses

Drink of the wine feel intense sensations sweet red divine fiery temptation tonight

I pierce the skin of thee rejoice with the pain
and uniting in our sorrow Burning obsession
pouring out like the rain this salvation I desire

As the taste strokes my tongue thawed is the frozen past sweeping over me

Your scars a memory of my affection the deeper the wound the fonder my love

Burning obsession

solo (A. Laiho)
