

Sing It Loud, Let Yourself Go

My eyes are barely spinning sideways
And my words get thrown around
But now that we have gone our own ways
I think my voice is gonna drown

So girl, can you hear me whisper, as we lay under the stars
The night is cold, so hold me closer
Oh, how did things fall apart

And I swear I hear her voice
But it tells me to hold on
A scent of flowers in her hair
What once was here is all but gone

Summer nights are tempting 'cause I'm easy
Slow it down, I'm feeling you out
'Cause, oh no, I've become more dangerous
Baby, baby don't hold me down
Down, down, down, down

And I swear I hear her voice
But it tells me to hold on
A scent of flowers in her hair
What once was here is all but gone

And I swear I hear his voice
But it tells me to move on
And I see them holding hands
In light of all that has been done

Sing out loud
Some on and let yourself go
Come on and let it all out
Sing out loud, oh yeah I'm losing control
So fall into my arms once more
Sing out loud
Let's take it back to the start
I'm falling head over heels for you
Sing out loud
Come on and sing it up more
So we can fall in love again

I hear her voice, but it tells me to move on
A scent of flowers in her hair
What once was here is all but gone

And I swear I hear his voice
But it tells me to hold on
I see some flowers in her hair
What once was here is all but gone

And I swear I hear her voice
But it tells me to hold on
A scent of flowers in her hair
What once was here is all but gone.

(Sing out loud)
And I swear I hear his voice
But it tells me to move on
And I see them holding hands
In light of all that has been done

And I swear I hear her voice...
