

Sinisstar, Clear Plastic

This is the world where you were born and you're gonna have to get along
Why am I so disconnected
When everything's so clear
Falling through my generation
[calling on my generation] (repeat)
It's a clear plastic world
There's nothing to gain
It's all the same (repeat)
So what are you gonna do about it and will you take the same old shit
Why are you so apathetic
With everything you fear
Falling through my generation
[calling on my generation] (repeat)
It's a clear plastic world
There's nothing to gain
It's all the same (repeat)
Wait a second cause this don gel living in a shell
I living in hell
When I break out
I'm taking you out
Falling through my generation
[calling on my generation] (repeat)
It's a clear plastic world
There's nothing to gain
It's all the same (repeat)
