

Sinister, Doomed

Unleashed from the swarm of mortality arise in darkness where blackened souls dwell

Shapes of darkness will abide the sound of death remains in emptiness

Among the void twilight remains filled with spawn of blasphemy

Obscure vortex of morbid wrath full of malignant mutations Bestial luminous semblance source of abomination consuming souls perpetual horror beyond description

Descended in a new dimension reborn in harassment journey beyond eternity travelling through this world of doom

From the burning depths they appear lardaceous goo mutations swarming among ancient spirits spawn havoc creations

journey beyond eternity
unholy world of doom

Life like afterbirth - invoked semblance inept creature - leave now seance ends

(lead : Andr)

My mind is going places abandoning the body envisioning my casket hollow mortal remains

(lead : Ron)

Drawn tighter to the vortex which center_s hell_s dimension disclosure of agony beyond the vacuum pylon

Malignant mutations piercing my soul amalgamation with agony life slips away

Enter now the world of doom
