

Sinner, Pain In Your Neck

where do i find the miracle i walk thorough holy water pray to lord my sacred soul walking down the meanest streets never took the easy way faith is not enough i'm in a cold cold sweat you'll ain't see me crying

and when it hurts i'll carry the pain
no reason to dying
i will unleash a hurricane

i'm the pain in your neck
i'm your heart attack
i will come in black
and if you plead for mercy
and hear it crack

you hear some call it faith well the mysteries are all the same you dealing with your toughest enemy be sure i'll see the end when you hear the thunder bell be sure you stay on track 'cause i'll watch your back
