

Sinsemilia, From Loneliness To Madness

(For the lonely ones)

There's not so far from a vibe of loneliness to a vibe of sadness

There's not so far, far, far

There's not so far

There's not so far from a vibe of loneliness to a vibe of madness

There's not so far, far, far

There's not so far

(He knows) he's not the richest man

(He knows) he's not the nicest man

But he wants the right to live

What so many, so many, so many, so many live

Find a, find a wife

Build a family

But dreams are dreams and he lives something else

He's in a nightmare

There are hundreds people walking through his life

But no one, no one, no one, no one to share it for a while

He don't know why

He's got so much love to give

But no one, no one, no one, no one to receive it

Wakes up alone

Eats alone

Sleeps alone

Lives alone

Sometimes makes love alone

Wakes up alone

Eats alone

Sleeps alone

Lives alone

Afraid of dying alone

Afraid of dying alone

There are hundreds people walking through his life

But no one, no one, no one, no one to share it for a while

He don't know why

He's got so much love to give

But no one, no one, no one, no one to receive it

It gonna drive him crazy

Drive him crazy
