

Sinsemilia, Hold Up

(There's no freedom on this way)

Nobody moves nobody gets hurt
This is not an hold up
That's a law in their world

Nobody moves nobody gets hurt
This is not an hold up
That's a law in their world

When over confusion a voice tries to rise up (for justice and love)
I know this voice will soon get hurt
Babylon doesn't like those who wake up the youth
Babylon doesn't like those who light up the truth
Babylon doesn't like those who wake up the youth
Babylon doesn't like those who light up the truth

From Jesus Christ to Luther King
From Mandela to Great Ghandi
From Tosh and Marley in the reggae's story
Babylon's ready to kill

(Silent sheeps) silent sheeps
That's what they used to be
Silent sheeps
Silently working for their shitstem
Eh common now don't let them get you down
Eh common let's wake up your town

Nobody moves nobody gets hurt
This is not an hold up
That's a law in their world

Nobody moves nobody gets hurt
This is not an hold up
That's a law in their world

(Hold up) there's a hold up
(Official one) an official one
All the truth are not good to say
That's what they say
Babylon doesn't like those who wake up the youth
Babylon doesn't like those who light up the truth
Babylon doesn't like those who wake up the youth
Babylon doesn't like those who light up the truth

Nobody moves nobody gets hurt
This is not an hold up
That's a law in their world

Nobody moves nobody gets hurt
This is not an hold up
That's a law in their world
