

Siobhan Donaghy, Hard To Say

There ain't no room for the two of us
No matter how hard we try
There ain't no room for the two of us, babe
I keep on asking myself: "Why?
Should I pack my bags and leave?"
If there ain't no room for the two of us
It's just the way it has to be

"I find it really hard to say
When I'm with you I don't feel the same way
What am I supposed to do?
I know I just can't be with you"

There ain't no room for the two of us
I wanna do things for myself
There ain't no room for the two of us, babe
You need to find somebody else
What you crying for?
If there ain't no room for the two of us
The two of us don't work no more

"I find it really hard to say
When I'm with you I don't feel the same way
What am I supposed to do?
I know I just can't be with you

I find it really hard to say
When I'm with you I don't feel the same way (way)
What am I supposed to do? (what am I?)
I know I just can't be with you (you)

I find it really hard to say
When I'm with you I don't feel the same way (way)
What am I supposed to do?
I know I just can't be with you

With you
With you
With you
With you
With you"
(repeat)
