Siobhan Donaghy, Those Anythings

Verse 1
You left me alone
But you don't know why
You said silly things
And taught me to cry
See i've been searching
For words to confide
I'm trying to breathe
But it hurts inside

Chorus
You say
Me is all that's turning you
Now i say, now i say
Those anythings

Verse 2
You left me alone
For the reasons to try
You say it all in vein
These tiny thoughts are mine
See i've been learning
To stand firm in time
I'll be turning these woes into pride
These woes into pride

Repeat Chorus x3
