

Sioen, See You Naked

Every night you turn off the light
Well, do you mind?
I can never see you naked
To be polite you know
I shot my mouth
So I could ever see you naked

Be on the look-out for some uncovered parts
You know
How I would like to see you naked yeah
To be polite you know
I try to hide
So I could ever see you naked I see

So maybe watch the news
No wicked sign
All alone with my excuse
For being wild
If ever what you want isn't there
You're alone instead but you're feeling rare
If wicked is what you knew
No wicked sign
No one's lying
No one to denial

Is it your shame or your pride
Your breasts or behind
Why I could never see you naked
Not too polite I know
But do you mind?
That I could ever see you naked

I'm sitting 'round the corner
Praying for my belief
I'll be watching
No, I should never cross the border
But it's on my cassette
I'll be looking

~