

Siouxsie and The Banshees, Festival Of Colours

kula 'ula 'ula poni
'alani melemele polu
'akala 'oma 'oma 'o

Come to the festival of colours celebrate the festival of colours shake your serpent thrashing hair come and tint the sleeping air across the seas from India but a rainbow can start anywhere clutching handfuls of the powder throw it everywhere chanting out their many names kick it to the wind...

'alani melemele polu
'akala 'oma 'oma 'o...

...festival of colours
