

Siouxsie and The Banshees, Running Town

Just a step onto the street
An uncomfortable heat
Rattlers at your feet
In running town

Helter-skelter all a-swelter
The impetus is seething
In running town
A thousand curses
Full speed ahead

Lockjaw aggression
And buzzing irritations
Deride the friendly martian
In running town

Helter-skelter all a-swelter
The impetus is seething
In running town
A thousand curses
Full speed ahead

If you gaze into her face
She'll glare back & drown
All refugees in the sea
In running town

A thousand curses
Full speed ahead
Full speed ahead...
Laughter rebounds & strangles
That sound in running town

In running town...
