

Siouxsie and The Banshees, Something Blue

In midnight guise these cobalt eyes
Pierce the indigo skies
In tearing through a Prussian army
Hence the royal hue
Forget-me-nots and violet plains weep titanium chains
Of sapphire days and turquoise dreams
In floating ultra-marine

Something blue--something sparkling through?
Out of the blue, I'm reminded of you

Forget-me-nots and violet plains weep titanium chains
Of sapphire days and turquoise dreams
In floating ultra-marine

Something blue--something sparkling through?
Out of the blue, I'm reminded of you
