

Sirusho, I Still Breathe

You've been telling me words that you didn't mean
You've been promising worlds I didn't even see
You've been living in dreams that you took from me
You've been searching for life u saw in me
I've been crazy to let you blind me till now
I've been looking for changes someday somehow
I've been too much off love till I understood
You've been playing me and betraying me
I'm not your doll 'cause I still breath
I say it's fault but you want scream
You made me crawl now I found wings
I'm gonna fly to the sky I wont let my love die
I'm not your doll 'cause I still breath
I say it's fault but you want scream
You made me crawl now I found wings
I'm gonna fly to the sky I wont let my love die
I don't want to waste time on your silly games
I don't want to believe in rescue romances
All I need is someone to save me from you
Things u put me through, had enough of you
I'm not your doll 'cause I still breath
I say it's fault but you want scream
You made me crawl now I found wings
I'm gonna fly to the sky I wont let my love die
I'm not your doll 'cause I still breath
I say it's fault but you want scream
You made me crawl now I found wings
I'm gonna fly to the sky I wont let my love die
I cry, I cry...
I'm gonna fly to the sky I wont let my love die
I'm not your doll 'cause I still breath
I say it's fault but you want scream
You made me crawl now I found wings
I'm gonna fly to the sky I wont let my love die
