Sissel, Better Off Alone

Girl dont be sad You know what youre missing No reason to feel bad He dont mean much with his kisses Youre gonna make it through You have always been surviving Ive got faith in you And I know youll get it going But you cant go back To what it never was To repossess, what you never owned But you cant go back To what it never was This is that time, this is that time When youre better off alone Girl dont you see Theres nothing more to see there Youve got a friend in me And I will always be here And you know it wont be long Until its all behind you You will meet someone Someones bound to find you But you cant go back To what it never was To repossess, what you never owned But you cant go back To what it never was This is that time, this is that time When youre better off alone Even alone at night You will be all right Youre so strong you will get over him And there will be times That III expect these lies Not to comfort but remind you But you cant go back
