

Sissel, Should It Matter

I look at you
Please don't walk away
I see you're about to
There is just something I'd really like to say
So please don't walk away
I know that you're there
Still you pretend you're not
Yes I know it hurts
I have also felt the pain
So should it matter
What I do or what I've done
As long as in my heart
You're still the only one
I hear you say it
But I don't think you understand
I can be trusted now, I swear to you I can
It's been a year
a memory from my past
I know what I did wrong
I wish to change
Just to make it last
But I guess it's been too long
Easy to move on
To forget to about it all
Is that what you do, hoping I will be gone
So should it matter
What I do or what I've done
As long as in my heart
You're still the only one
I hear you say it
But I don't think you understand
I can be trusted now, I swear to you I can
If you got to know me again
Maybe then -- maybe then
We could see what what we should do
But that's all up to you
I'll be waiting for you
So should it matter
What I do or what I've done
As long as in my heart
You're still the only one
I hear you say it
But I don't think you understand
I can be trusted now, I swear to you I can
I hear you say it
But I don't think you understand
I can be trusted now, I swear to you I can
