

Sister Hazel, Killing Me Too

Lend me your ear and I'll tell you about the things I fear
Open your heart and I'll tell you why I'm torn apart maybe
Lend me your car and we'll go chase down a falling star
Give me your hand cause it takes that fire to understand

[Pre-Chorus]

When was the last time you felt high
Oh you were the best I've ever felt
I don't need you fix me
I just want you to listen

[Chorus]

It's killing me too
It's so wrong not to be with you
It's getting harder to stay awake
It's killing me too
It stops my heart just to be with you
So listen cause you are the only one who cares to hear

Lend me your time and we'll go somewhere and kill some wine baby
Show me your soul and I'll shine my light where it seems so cold now
Give me your lips and I'll tell you about all the things I miss the most Open your mind and I'll crawl right up and sleep inside of it

[Pre-Chorus]

[Chorus]

[Pre-Chorus]

[Chorus]

To hear me
