

Sister Seven, Fallen Angel

You can be saved in baptismal waters
A blessed virgin child
You can behave and ignore that you notice
Questions all the while

But don't ask for truth and conscience
Don't ask why Eve was an angel
Heaven's the big time, baby
So don't ask for more than you bargained
Be sweet and sane and you're pardoned
Eve was born for the man
Don't forget your place

You can be veiled in a foreign country
Never show your skin
You can be traded with all your dowry
Suffering for sin

But don't ask for truth and conscience
Don't ask why Eve was an angel
Heaven's the big time, baby
So don't ask for more than you bargained
Be sweet and sane and you're pardoned
Eve was born for the man

Fallen angel....
