

Sivu, Better Man Than He

You can end this□ anytime you want to
Just jump out of the window
And feel your body break on the ground
Or you can come a little closer
Come ride my magic carpet
And follow stars to Bethlehem

You're such a better man than he /4x

We'll find faith in the most magical of places
And find home in the smallest of rooms
We'll find life in the most barrenness of faces
And touch Christ in impending doom

We can go anywhere you want to
I don't really mind
But follow the life on the moon
A life of pain to do
A curse from me to you

You're such a better man than he /4x

We'll find faith in the most magical of places
And find home in the smallest of rooms
We'll find life in the most barrenness of faces
And touch Christ in impending doom

And we're singing
And here's from the harsh dream
Allow me closer
Signs from the palms read
We're so much colder
Ships sail out past the Persian coast
To the edge of the world
And I have doubt

You're such a better man than he /4x
