

Sixpence None the Richer, Easy To Ignore

You and the moon are a beautiful sight to me.
The Stars in your eyes make it really hard to see you.
A night in the sun is all I really want.
You and me with the best of both for once
Night breaks.
My heart could not ache anymore.
Am I that easy to ignore?

You let your songs blow right through me.
Your mighty intellect makes you mighty hard to see
Will there come a time for me to be more to you, more to me?

Night breaks.
My heart could not ache anymore.
Am I that easy to ignore?

My heart could not ache anymore
Am I that easy to ignore?

You and the moon are a beautiful sight to me
