

Sixpence None the Richer, Maybe Tomorrow

Maybe Tomorrow

Music & Lyrics by : Matt Slocum

hey I am having a little trouble again with myself

today I would label out of the ordinary

hey I read

the words to label him

said he strikes a tune mighty fine but in living life that's where he finds plenty of trouble

hey I am

a book inside your hands

will you turn the page and read the line where I reach the end and rid my mind of all this rubble

let me out

of this solitude

I want out

so I can be with you

let me out

I want to touch you

don't keep me here

hey I am

having a little trouble with myself...
