Sixpence None the Richer, Maybe Tomorrow

Maybe Tomorrow Music & Dyrics by : Matt Slocum hey I am having a little trouble again with myself today I would label out of the ordinary hey I read the words to label him said he strikes a tune mighty fine but in living life that's where he finds plenty of trouble hey I am a book inside your hands will you turn the page and read the line where I reach the end and rid my mind of all this rubble let me out of this solitude I want out so I can be with you let me out I want to touch you don't keep me here hey I am having a little trouble with myself...