

Sixpence None the Richer, Sad But True

Sad But True

Music & Lyrics by : Matt Slocum if I could have the words to change to speak into the world would they fly

I wonder if they'd put them in a jeweled box for sale

Chorus 1

but I need to strengthen the things that remain

it's sad but true

beauty never sells

in everything the same, it's true

it's sad but true

I want give in to what they want or has the window closed any way between the world they want to hear and what they love me to say

Chorus 2

but I need to strengthen the things that remain

money makes the rules, it's true

one of these days something will break through

I want to

but I wait a whole world,

Chorus 2
