

Sixpence None the Richer, Waiting On The Sun

I'm going nowhere
And I'm going to take my time
All the questions in the world
I can leave in my mind
I'm waiting on the sunshine
The sunshine

I'm waiting for answers
I'm waiting to figure it out
I trip over my chances
I slip through my doubt

I'm going nowhere
And I'm going to take my time
All the questions in the world
I can leave in my mind
I'm waiting on the sunshine
The sunshine
The sunshine

Well it seems that my weakness
Is sometimes my only strenght
And in my incompleteness
You get your way

I'm going nowhere
And I'm going to take my time
All the questions in the world
I can leave in my mind
I'm waiting on the sunshine
The sunshine
The sunshine

I'll be around
And I will find my way back down
Cannot sing the sound
Of the sun

I'm going nowhere
And I'm going to take my time
Allthe questions in the world
I can leave in my mind
I'm waiting on the sunshine
The sunshine
The sunshine
The sunshine
