Skankin Pickle, Pabu Boy

Can't sleep once again too many things on my mind I wish I could change the ways that I have spent my time Too lazy to get up and help my father with the chores I'm sure I'm not a bum but who am I to score But starting from 0-0 give me the ball I say pride I have and always will and I'm not a Pabu boy Take time to think things over hey that sounds ok Even though it's 4 yrs later and the kid has grown to stay Make no mistakes I understand there comes a time to move along in some way and make ends meet with mom Until that day, need I say "Don't worry bout me." I will be fine you see and I am not a pabu boy