

Skankin' Pickle, Take A Look

Take another bow and wipe the sweat off of your brow miling to the crowd they are in love with you Believe in what you will all the minds you want to fill smiling to yourself, they are in love with you Take a look, you might not like what you see What do you think you know something great it goes to show you can't resist the fatal blow or change what's wrong with you I tried to change myself to accomodate your doubts ignoring all along you were in love with you
Take a look, you might not like what you see
