

Skeeter Davis, He Doesn't Love Me Anymore

When he walked away I thought my eyes would deceive me
I told myself he isn't really leaving but he left me he doesn't love me anymore
Now he's really gone there's nothing left to cling to
I'm all alone with no one to talk to he left me he doesn't love me anymore
I suffer through the lonely nights for he is all I see Someone stands beside him but she doesn't look like me
Where can I go now my heart is dying
My tears won't show although I'm still crying cause he left me
He doesn't love me anymore

Where can I go...
