

Skeeter Davis, I Didn't Cry Today

The hurt's gettin' sore it don't hurt so bad and might even go away
I've been cryin' a long long time but I didn't cry today
I thought my tears would never leave they been faithful since he went away
Yes my tears have gone to another's eyes cause I didn't cry today
For the first time in a long time I didn't frown
My lips started smile down I look so up instead of down
I might just find me a new love if a new love comes my way
My hopes're high my eyes're dry I didn't cry today
[steel]
For the first time...
I didn't cry today uhuh I didn't cry today I started smilin' I didn't cry today
