

Skeptix, Death And Destruction

Our armies destroyed and defeated the only certainty of war is death fight to the last man searing pain take your last breath why why why do they die why do they live at all you who survive the fighting who have escaped from hell don't congratulate yourselves the real heroes are those who fell hungry, demoralized and nauseated by the horrors you have seen giving an order in which is stated
