

Skew Siskin, Thank You For The Time

I was standing while the rain came down
It took my power
Seemed like the first count down
I keep on wonderin' how does it feel to feel
And baby can't you tell me if my heart is strong as steel

You shot me down with your first shot
I don't care if you believe it or not
You took me down, I felt right at home
When you touched me in the danger zone

THANK YOU FOR THE TIME
TO CONFESS WHAT'S ON MY MIND
THANK YOU FOR THE TIME
NOW I KNOW YOU'RE A SPECIAL KIND

When I was going you were always after me
What was I doing and what made me blind to see
I always knew that love was dangerous
Now all those feelings have bitten the dust

Heartache come, heartache go
Did you ever learn how to say no
It's up to me, it's up to you
If love's a game with a trick or two

THANK YOU FOR THE TIME
TO CONFESS WHAT'S ON MY MIND
THANK YOU FOR THE TIME
NOW I KNOW YOU'RE A SPECIAL KIND
