Skid Row, Riot Act (Edited Version)

I never wanted to be President Cause its nothin but an ego trip, yeah I didnt want your education Cause its notin but a pile of shit

You bore me to death, so shut up for Gods sake

Stop readin me the riot act
While my brains are still intact
You say its raining, but youre pissin down my back
So stop readin me the riot act

I couldnt listen to a word you said This goin nowhere thing is wearin thin When your sex, your drugs, and your valid vic Is just the spit I wipe off my chin

Id rather go nowhere than not know where its at

Stop readin me the riot act While my brains are still intact

You say its raining, but youre pissin down my back
So stop readin me the riot act
