

Skillet, Unpopular

Am I the only one who ain't come undone?
Everybody's lost their dang minds
When you check your feed, it's like clown TV
And you're waitin' for the punchline

Oh, my my, hey, yeah
Guess I'm a loner in the crowd
Oh, my my, hey, yeah
Guess I'm the one you've been talkin' about
Guess I'm the one you've been talkin' about

Unpopular, unpopular
Call me out, clasp down, can't separate truth, yeah
Have you heard? I'm a commoner
Got my family, sanity, everything I need
If freedom is disease...
Who would ever want to be...
Popular? For what it's worth
I think today's a good day to be unpopular

I won't apologize when I speak my mind
I'm just bein' me, so lay off
If they can fool myself, it's called raisin' Hell
I guess that I'm an outlaw, woo

Oh, my my, hey, yeah
I ain't a loner in the crowd
Oh, my my, hey, yeah
Guess we about to be gettin' loud
Guess we about to be gettin' loud

Unpopular, unpopular
Call me out, clasp down, can't separate truth, yeah
Have you heard? I'm a commoner
Got my family, sanity, everything I need
If freedom is disease...
Who would ever want to be...
Popular? For what it's worth
I think today's a good day to be unpopular

Guess I'm the one you've been talkin' 'bout (Talkin' 'bout)
Guess I'm the one you've been talkin' 'bout (Talkin' 'bout)
Guess I'm the one you've been talkin' 'bout (Talkin' 'bout)
I guess I am the one, whatever

Unpopular, unpopular
Call me out, clasp down, can't separate truth, yeah
Have you heard? I'm a commoner
Got my family, sanity, everything I need
If freedom is disease...
Who would ever want to be...
Popular? For what it's worth
I think today's a good day to be unpopular

To be unpopular
