

Skin, I'll Try

I dont understand nothing less
Than this bitter release
You standing firm but wont talk to me
Makes it harder to hold on

But Ill try
Ill try
Ill try
Tell me how you feel and Ill try

I dont know what you want from this
Dont know nothing at all
Just this vision that I cant leave
Makes it harder to go on

Tell me how you feel and Ill try

Well fight this regret
And smother the doubt
Well conquer this

Well conquer regret
And smother the doubt
