

Skin & Maxim, Carmen Queasy

My vision is distorted by my sleazy mind
To picturesque an image to control this time
My intimate discriminating fears you test
My ignorance that truly feels it knows regress
You have the power but you keep it all to yourself
Your lust is decomposing us
The intricate sincerity is choking me
Its crumbling and crawling all around my feet
It wasn't jump from lie to lie to cover me
But could a bullet tell her just evading me
You have the power but you keep it all to yourself
Your lust is decomposing us
So now your telling me its all damn easy
Try to see yourself as carmen queasy
'Cos money making is a wonderful thing
Money making is a wonderful thing
But I don't wanna be A WALKING DEAD baby
Try to see yourself as carmen queasy
'Cos money making is a wonderful thing
Money making is a wonderful FEELING
Carmen Queasy. I don't wanna be
I'm flying out some rhythms in a cultural stare
Suffocating, stiffers straying like we care
Dissecting or analysing empty heart
To spit em out our wet dreams and calling it art
You have the vision but you keep it all to yourself
Your lust is decomposing us
So now your telling me its all damn easy
Try to see yourself as carmen queasy
'Cos money making is a wonderful thing
Money making is a wonderful thing
But I don't wanna be A WALKING DEAD baby
Try to see yourself as carmen queasy
'Cos money making is a wonderful thing
Money making is a wonderful FEELING
Money making, money taking
We don't have a choice
But we still have a voice
Antagonise life is too short
Twisted form and distort
Impregnate brains into my seminar
When I'm making music, making failure
Gotta take back what's mine (gotta take back)
Keep choking and holding, provoking
My life style you be smoking
So now your telling me its all damn easy
Try to see yourself as carmen queasy
'Cos money making is a wonderful thing
Money making is a wonderful thing
But I don't wanna be A WALKING DEAD baby
Try to see yourself as carmen queasy
'Cos money making is a wonderful thing
Money making is a wonderful FEELING
Money making us a wonderful thing [x4]
