

Skinlab, Second Skin: The New Flesh

Now I peel my skin.
Now I shed my skin.
Now I peel My skin.
Yeah, my second skin.

Now I peel my skin.
Now I peel my skin.
No more shedding skin.
now I peel my skin!!

You don't have the love it takes to give it all away.

No more shedding skin. Sick of running thin.
All you so called friends. Are you there in the end?

No more shedding skin. (4x)

You turn your back on me; you give more than we together.
I could have know it when you told me was all for clothes.

Sometimes I look back on the times we had.
The reason that you quit was something else.
Sometimes I think of all the times we had.
The thought of all this shit just makes me sick. (say "sick"; 7 times)

You turn your back on me; you give more than we together.
I could have know it when you told me was all for clothes.
