

Skinlab, Ten Seconds

Ten seconds before your suicide
Ten seconds before your drive, will you survive...?
Ten years gone by, still I wonder why
Sterilize these four walls of my mind

Now that I'm alone
There's nothing left to get me through a time
The pain goes on and on and on and on
Sterilize these four walls of my mind

Who am I to blame!?
Always a part of me
When nothing feels the same
Ten seconds to your last breath

Always a part of me
Always a part of you

Your world will never be the same
So close, but nothing left to gain
All I have is a memory
So pure, so fucking pure

Your world will never be the same
So close, but nothing left to gain
Ten seconds to your last breath
I'm counting my ten seconds

Will never be the same
Will never be the same

Who am I to blame!?
Always a part of me
When nothing feels the same
Ten seconds to your last breath

Always a part of me
Always a part of you

Your world will never be the same
So close, but nothing left to gain
All I have is a memory
So pure, so fucking pure

Your world will never be the same
So close, but nothing left to gain
Ten seconds to your last breath
I'm counting my ten seconds

Will never be the same
Will never be the same

Ten seconds before your suicide
Ten seconds before your drive, will you survive...?

Now that I'm alone
There's nothing left to get me through a time
The pain goes on and on and on and on
Sterilize these four walls of my mind
