silence the deadly golden cry out don't stay behind stay up internal breakdown bloodflow drip from the eyes incest the inner reason fast life lay in decline sank back in fresh arrival face split with life so why remorse a heartless soul senseless no apparent self control since then cold uncaring accusations run wild accelerate the heartbeat or so seen with their eyes twisting with truth or fact a kind of story that lies motion sickness is screaming stab cut retard my mind tiresome a sacred leader sensations more than die fortune is worshiped highly one day to pray then die melting in fiery sand quick sink in false so high
