Skrape, Syrup

Image, of my soul Confusing, made into something

I know the sea I must throw it away No one is safe In this sunlight today

So lets just pray So lets just pray So lets just pray Together, together!

Pray, this will never let us down

Slowdown, let me shell you Seldem, sells you

I know the sea I must throw it away No one is safe In this sunlight today

So lets just pray So lets just pray So lets just pray Together, together!

Pray, this will never let us down

Never, let me down Lets you down

Slowly I rise from my resting Toying with myself and fall back glistening Sweat is the taste when you leave me And stuck in a wasteland of no more

No, No, No, No What is this? Was that the timer? Or was I only sleeping?
