

Skulker, Morgan

Sitting at home at night i'm feeling alone
I get to thiking to myself
There was a time I wanted you by my side
Until I realised that you're all the same!

You can't tell us what to do
Coz we've done better things than you
You can't tell us what to do
At least we're
Morgan
Morgan
Morgan, yeah!
Morgan

You know we're spying for the FBI
Not something that you can boast about
You think that you're three steps ahead of us
One day we'll be 3 thousand kilometres away.
