

SkulkPartitionRoot, Magneto Girl

Her silver skin glows in the dark
Aliviating and causing pain
Beyond the dreams of boys and girls
Manipulating skyes and rain
And when we're dark, she is the light
When she's the night, we shine like day
Synthetic and organic hearts
Attracted in the strangest way

Her silver skin for boys and girls
Aliviating skyes of rain
Beyond the bounds of silent and noise
Manipulating and causing pain
And when she look at me in the eye
My fragile heart just starts to break
Sometimes I feel in love with her
Next time all love turned into hate

And when I met you, you were someoneelse
And when I loved you, I was someoneelse
And when I left you, you were someoneelse
And when you needed me, I was someoneelse

aaaaaAAAAAAAAaaaaaaa
aaaaaAAAAAAAAaaaaaaa
aaaaaAAAAAAAAaaaaaaa
aaaaaAAAAAAAAaaaaaaa

And when I met you
And when I loved you
And when I left you
And when you needed me

I know that we are poles apart
When she's the void I'm saturated
Whe I am filled she's emptyness
That's why I love the way she's made
And when she look at me in the eye
My fragile heart just starts to break
Sometimes I feel in love with her
Next time all love turns into hate
