

SkulkPartitionRoot, True Love Girl

When I first met you, my heart ain't grown enough
Now to forget you, it's not strong enough
Why do I need you? With all unfastened knots?
Why do I keep you? Ain't all my toys enough?

When I first met you, four thousand days ago
My heart was empty, no room for doubts at all
Now there's a new world, and your not there anymore
And when the night comes, I cannot sleep anyhow
