

Skunk Anansie, God Loves Only You

his men have taken all the jewels you gave him your sweatin' shakin' cos your god loves only you i am one again
i am born again
your eyes shine brighter
he takes you higher the dawn is breaking over girls half naked your soul is taken cos your god loves only you
i am one again
our world is changing cos your god loves only you
