Sky Eats Airplane, In Retrospect

Go ahead and knock me out,
it hurts so good and you're all I've got.

The last thing that you said to me,
was that you and I were meant to be.

Hold my hand and check my pulse,
revive me with just one touch.
You'll never want to end this.

Go ahead and knock me out,
it hurts so good and you're all I've got.

No hospital is gonna save you from a broken heart,
a broken heart.
No words could rid you of your regrets.
Sweet dreams on your last night.

I hold your hand and check your pulse,
you're already out cold on the floor.
Go ahead and knock me out,
it hurts so good since,
since your all that I've got.

No hospital is gonna save you
from a broken heart, a broken heart.
No words could rid you of your regrets.
I need you in my life.

Don't do this to yourself,
you're the only thing I've got,
and the only one I want,
is never gonna stop.
She's killing herself to sleep,
sweet dreams and rest in peace.
