

Sky Harbor, My Anthem

Is this just another sad song
You can listen in your room all alone?
The words are so familiar
Is this your song, does it keep dragging you along?
I won't keep quiet no more
I'm sick of turning myself down
Won't let the rocks and hills cry out

You will hear my anthem
You will hear my anthem
Are you ready?

Am I another teenage stereo-
Type that only see's the angst in every scenario?
This tune is so familiar
But I've let it go, this song's not me anymore
I won't keep quiet no more
Cause I love to hear the crowd
Sorry if it's too loud
