

Sky Harbor, What If I Doubt

My life set down in my own path
This course has brought me here
It's difficult, sometimes I feel I need
To close my eyes and have no fear

And I feel you burning up inside of me
Is it real?
Cause now I'm not sure where you went

What if I doubt?
What if I question things my life has been about?
Will you turn your back on me?
And what if I doubt?
What if I question the one who's never let me down?
Yeah, you're still looking after me
(it's okay)

In one minute these frail feelings
Can turn my mind awry
Do you have good days? Do you have bad?
Have you ever changed your mind?

And I feel you burning up inside of me
Yeah, it's real
But now I'm not sure where I went
