

Sky Harbor, Where Did You Come From?

I Got a plan for today
Finally figured out what's going on
Until I got this phone call
Telling me I was wrong
The news was different today
There was color in the black and white
Headline's read, "The world is different today"
Are you ready for a different life, yeah?

Ooh...
Where did you come from?
Ooh...
Where did you come from?

I didn't see you
Standing there all along
How long have you been there?
Why couldn't I see you before?
Why do phone calls from fate
always seem too late?
I guess it's time for my own rules to break
as I take this leap of faith, yeah

Where did you come from?
Could you stay a while?
Could you stay a while with me,
Could you stay a while right here, yeah?
Where did you come from?
