

Sky, Planetarium

the moonLight evening shows its face and the voices of the children disappear somewhere far far off in the sky.. you are probably out there do remember what that constellation was?
even if we cant be together..
I want to follow my memories..and see the same happiness as you do the fireworks burst in a flush.. together with that scent
I want to go to where you are..
I want to run off right now you cant see anything in the pitch darkness.. its alright to be scared
the starry sky with countless amounts of stars is always going to be right here..even now I wont cry..
because a long time ago..
I saw a beautiful sky with you the sound of shoes echoing out on that roads is still left in my ears staring at my large shadow..

I wonder if you still think about me even though they shouldnt have change at all.. sad feeling swell in me
no matter what I feel..
you are not here anymore
I want to go to your side.. even if just for a little while
I want to go to where you are..
clenching my small hands
I love you most of all.. its stayed a strong feeling
I tried silently wishing on a shooting star
but I wont cry..
the wish will go through into the beautiful sky
